RE: Notification of Subscriber Transfer
CC Docket No. 00-257

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Pursuant to Section 64.1120(e) of the Commission's Rules, 47 C.F.R. § 64.1120(e), this letter provides notification of transfer and/or disconnect of certain Idaho local exchange subscribers of IBC Communications to Qwest Corporation and Qwest Long Distance Corporation, collectively known as Qwest.

A customer notice letter will be sent on or about December 5, 2005 advising former IBC Communications' customers that Qwest will continue to provide telephone service for a period of 30 days. Former IBC Communications' customers must apply for local and/or long distance service with Qwest or a carrier of their choice within 30 days. Customers who have not entered into a business relationship with Qwest at the end of the 30 day period will have their retail account with Qwest terminated. No customer will be disconnected prior to January 9, 2006.

A sample of the notification letter is attached hereto. Qwest certifies that it has provided advance subscriber notice in accordance with Section 64.1120(e)(3), 47 C.F.R. § 64.1120(e)(3), and that it will comply with the obligations specified in that notice and other statutory and Commission requirements that apply to the streamlined carrier change process.

An original and four copies of this correspondence are provided, along with an extra copy, to be stamped and returned to the courier. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Diana Jones

QWEST WILL CONTINUE YOUR SERVICE

NAME

ADDRESS

CITY/STATE/ZIP

Dear NAME:

IBC Communications ceased providing local and long-distance telephone service in Idaho on November 23, 2005. You should have received a letter from IBC on or about October 1, 2005, explaining your options and informing you that it was necessary for you to choose an alternate provider for continued telephone service.

If you have not chosen an alternative provider before January 9, 2006, your account will be transferred to Qwest, and your telephone service and current telephone number will continue uninterrupted.

What You Need to Know

- The Idaho Public Utilities Commission (IPUC) has been notified and is aware that Qwest will serve as your default provider.
- Your local telephone service account will be transferred automatically to Qwest.
- If IBC provided your long-distance service as well, your long-distance service will also be continued with Qwest under a similar long-distance plan.
- If a different company provides your long-distance service, your long-distance provider will remain unchanged unless and until you request a change.
- The transfer to Qwest will be made at no charge to you. You will maintain your current telephone number, and you will receive the same or similar services and features you have now – though all will be provided under Qwest terms and conditions and at Qwest rates.
- You will begin being billed for Qwest service on or about January 9, 2006, unless you choose another provider before then.

Subject to applicable tariffs and regulations. Prices/package components subject to change.

- If you had a "preferred carrier freeze" for your local or long-distance services with IBC, they will be voided by this transfer and you must inform any new carrier, including Qwest, that you wish to reinstitute the freeze. (A preferred carrier freeze protects your choice of service carrier; with a freeze in effect, another company cannot change your service access without your express permission.)
- An overview of Qwest local and long-distance rates is included with this letter.
- Should you wish to receive service from an alternate provider, there are a number of local exchange service providers serving your area who may meet your needs. You can find them in your local telephone directory or by visiting the Idaho PUC online at <http://www.puc.state.id.us/tariff/approved/approved.htm>.
- Depending on your credit history, Qwest may charge you a deposit.
- If you owe Qwest a previous bill for your local telephone service, you must either pay what is owed or make acceptable payment arrangements. Otherwise, you must choose another provider to ensure your service is continued without disruption.

We Make it Easy

We know you have a choice, and we value your business. If you have not chosen another provider by January 9, 2006, you will receive a Qwest Welcome Letter describing your new services and features. And even if you are transferred to Qwest as your default provider, you may choose another provider for your local or long-distance service at any time.

If you have questions about your new service or features, please call us:

- Residential customers call 1 800-244-1111 to choose another long-distance carrier, discuss services or learn more about Qwest rates or service terms and conditions.
- Business customers call 1 800-603-6000 to choose another long-distance carrier, discuss services or for any other business service questions.

Please be assured that your transfer to Qwest does not prevent you from choosing a different local or long-distance provider at any time. If you have any questions or complaints regarding your service with IBC, please either call IBC directly, or the Idaho Public Utilities Commission at 1 800-432-0369.

We appreciate the opportunity to continue your telephone service.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Copeland
